(Hed) P.E.

I feel adrenaline
I feel like I'm ready for anything
All of my insecurities, fade into oblivion
Now, history in the making
You know what's coming
You know I feel like amazing?
We getting it in
You shooting them out of your way
I knew she was coming
She call myself in and she taking it back
Call up on her knees
She begging for mercy forward and back
She puttin' in work, she ready for war
She hitting the ground running

Hurricane

I feel adrenaline
Killin' me close to this medicine
All of my insecurities, they won't let me live again

I feel adrenaline
Killin' me close to this medicine
All of my insecurities, they won't let me live again

We do this shit everyday
Parting while running?
That's how I like it
I think I'm losing my mind
And it's so fucking divine
I told her whether or not she quit
This is the end of it
Who know divine wanted peace?
Ripping the ground beneath her feet
If you get too close, what will it be?
Definitely somebody feeling like me?
Where is the heart, where is the pain?
