

Heights (It Reminds Me)

Heffron Drive

There's something 'bout this place
Brings chills to my spine
It happens every time
Such a familiar face
Every stranger that walks on by I don't know why
I can't put my finger on it
Like trying to catch smoke with a net but
I got a feeling I only get when I'm lost in a thought
And I breathe in the scent

Ooh, it reminds me of you
Yeah, it reminds me of you

This falling love is so real right
On every avenue, yeah
Echoes the sound of your shoes
Wishful and hoping for the sun
It's always out of the blue
When I start recollecting
Lost in the view

Ooh, it reminds me of you
Yeah, it reminds me of you
It reminds me
Ooh, it reminds me of you
It reminds me, yeah
Yeah, it reminds me of you, you

There's something 'bout this place
Such a familiar face
Something 'bout this place (ooh, it reminds me of you, it reminds me)
Such a familiar taste
It reminds me, it reminds me
There's something 'bout this place
(Ooh, it reminds me of you, reminds me of you)
Such a familiar face
Reminds me, it reminds me of you

Ooh, it reminds me of you, yeah
Yeah, it reminds me of you
Ooh, it reminds me of you
It reminds me, yeah
Yeah, it reminds me of you, you

It reminds me, it reminds me
Ooh, it reminds me of you, oh oh
Yeah, it reminds me of you, you
