

What Am I Waiting For

Heidi Newfield

I got a street light green, I got an old Mustang
I got a small town, get out anywhere but here dreams
And an open road, what am I waiting for?

Well, I'm five years into a two year plan
Still standing here with the walls closing in Behind this open door, what am I waiting for?
Oh, what am I waiting for?

I stayed here for love, watched it disappear
Now there's nothing but yesterdays holding me here
I can't take no more, what am I waiting for?
Oh, what am I waiting for?

Yeah, these blue skies and sunshine and good times
Are mine for the taking
I'm always saying I'm crazy for staying
So what am I waiting for?

I can hear God now from a silver cloud
I got plans for you child, what you worried about?
You know life's too short, what are you waiting for?
Oh, what are you waiting for?

Yeah, these blue skies and sunshine and good times
Are mine for the taking
I'm always saying I'm crazy for staying
So what am I waiting for?

Oh, what are you waiting for?
What am I waiting for?
