

Save You

Heimdall

Son, watch around - this is my home
Now burns in flames and I with her sink
I hear thy voice, fate; I obey thy call
As for my grave, let heaven take care...

Save you beyond the dark of this night
Save you beyond this line
Save you beyond the clouds to the light
Save you now it's my time

My way is written, the same of these ruins
Here, my last elegy - her last sad song
I hear thy voice, fate: I obey thy call
As for my grave, let heaven take care...

Save you beyond the dark of this night
Save you beyond this line
Save you beyond the clouds to the light
Save you now it's my time
