I have a lil something these days
It's like I know your heart but I don't, it's ambiguous
You and I, we have a lil something
It's like you'll give me your heart but won't
We're having a lil something

You tell me first
Or should I tell you first?
I want you to be a man
So tell me you love me

Don't play games with me
I want to love
You want to receive love

It's ambiguous, you and me
It's ambiguous, our relationship
It's still iffy (to love)
It's still iffy (to love)
We're iffy, we're iffy

I have a lil something these days
It's like I know your heart but I don't, it's ambiguous
You and I, we have a lil something
It's like you'll give me your heart but won't
We're having a lil something

You secretly look at me again
Is there something on my face?
Honestly, we're just friends
But a little closer
No, don't be mistaken

Every time you text me
We keep talking about useless things
We have a lil something, no we don't, don't be mistaken
But before I go to sleep, I think of you again

It's ambiguous, you and me
It's ambiguous, our relationship
It's still iffy (to love)
It's still iffy (to love)
We're iffy, we're iffy

I have a lil something these days
It's like I know your heart but I don't, it's ambiguous
You and I, we have a lil something
It's like you'll give me your heart but won't
We're having a lil something

Playing hard to get
When you come to me, I run away
Playing hard to get
When you look somewhere else, I get antsy

Playing hard to get
When you come to me, I run away
Playing hard to get
When you look somewhere else, I get antsy

It's like I know but I don't
It's like I know but I don't

It's still iffy (to love)
It's still iffy (to love)
We're iffy, we're iffy

So what're you doing this weekend?

I have a lil something these days
It's like I know your heart but I don't, it's ambiguous
You and I, we have a lil something
It's like you'll give me your heart but won't
We're having a lil something

But before I go to sleep, I think of you again
When I open my eyes in the morning, I think of you again
Why do I think of you when I'm walking by myself?

I think of you, I keep thinking of you

It's like I know but I don't

It's like I know but I don't

We're iffy
