

Does Your Heart Go Boom

Helen Love

Now things are better, the birds are singing and the sky is summer blue
He's got Atari Teenage Riot on his music centre in a home with a beautiful view
You know things are better cos he's getting excited Telling everyone he hates Man United
Baby I love you
Baby I love you
Baby I love you
Baby I love you
Does your heart go boom, does your heart go boom
Does your heart, does your heart, does your heart go boom
Baby I love you
You make my heart go boom
