

Black Metal

Helena Deland

I've got nothing but my one track mind
Baby is anybody going to save me from it's storm
Waiting in the corner
Wonder why things do not change as they get old

Turn me (free?)
I will go as far
I was waiting for you where you are

Oh man, doesn't matter if I love you
Sometimes much more than I say Doesn't matter if I do so with my makeshift loneliness metres a way
Oh so patiently I see it standing by the door
Probably take a step, lead em' outside
If I weren't so needy, asking for

More, love, more
I will take what I can get
In repudiate guilt by trying as hard as I can to forget

Love
Love
It's gone too far it seems
It's gone too far it seems to me

No, wait for me
This is far as I can go

And with my arms around myself I'm taking it, taking it, taking it slow
With my arms around myself I'm taking it, taking it, taking it
slow
With my arms around myself I'm taking it, taking it, taking it
slow
slow
