

I'll Walk With You

Helene Fischer

I can feel something I know that you're hurting so deep inside
It's hard to be open when all that you hope for just seems to die
Sometimes the world can be cold Sometimes a heart turns to stone I'll go wherever you go, you're not alone

I'll walk with you, I'll walk with you I will be here, so strong and clear I will be here, be far or near I'll walk with you, I'll walk with you Let my love in and be your guide I 'll be right
by your side

I know the feeling when all you believe in you know is gone Nothing but sorrow you think of tomorrow, you can't go on Life can be sweet as a rose Life can be hard on your own I'll go wherever you go, you're not alone

I'll walk with you, I'll walk with you I will be here, so strong
and clear I will be here, be far or near I'll walk with you , I'll walk with you Let my love in and be your guide I 'll be right
by your side

I can help you fly, bring your dreams to life And I will be here
by your side

and clear I will be here, be far or near I'll walk with you, I'll walk with you Let my love in and be your guide I 'll be right by your side I will be here by your side
