

Gaia

Helia

There's no pray to cover all this shame
There's no way, no way to shout out we haven't failed.
There's no pray to cover all this shame
Your name was Gaia,
We'll never get you back.
Do we deserve this world?
Shall we see the end alone?
You're the ground we trample upon..

Your eyes are so pure and true,
That we've never tried to read 'em through.
A dream that we'll miss forever.

What's the price of life,
Once we make you die?
Who'll sleep without regret?
Pray for the sinners, the winter is coming
Destroy the life we met, that's what we're good at.
Did you create us to kill each other?

Your eyes are so pure and true,
That we've never tried to read 'em through.
A dream that we'll miss forever.

The sun has melted down...fallen to hell.
This was our fuckin' planet, everything we had.

BLEAH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Money instead of tears
and I'd prefer to be blind!

Your eyes are so pure and true,
That we've never tried to read 'em through.
A dream that we'll miss forever.

The sun has melted down...fallen to hell.
