

Push it!

Helia

No one's here
I get lost in this empty room
No more fear
I will be just fine
Burnin' inside
I don't want this anymore
I don't mind if you'll be there
Tonight i feel like God
You'll wear yourself to death
What you see is what you get
So now get ready for a beautiful end
You're falling apart
Are you ready to fall down?
I hope you enjoy dancing alone singing this song
I hope you enjoy when you walk in the fire
I want to forget all my past
And try to rise from this black hole
Who am i? The rejected
Ready for my reign to come
Try to fix this in your mind bitch
All we need is a mirror to remind ourselves who we are Now listen
We are the ones that break the silence
We are the ones with wounds and scars
Are you ready to fall down?
