

Crazy Women

Helix

I can't handle anymore crazy women today
I'm lookin' like, lookin' like a mess since yesterday

Don't forget now. Who you are?
Or they'll be comin' with callin' cards
There'll be padded walls and locked doors
I don't like your way of thinkin' anymore
No. I said no, no, no

Now when I'm rockin' southside bar
Forgetting the heat
There's somethin' 'bout livin' with the crowd
That's making it neat

Now if I go and see who they are
They'll be comin' with callin' cards
There'll be padded walls and locked doors
I can't handle crazy women anymore

There'll come a time
When I hope my music will sell
I'll do it, I can make my livin' and tell

Of unknown secrets near and far
Of lonely ladies with callin' cards
There'll be padded walls and locked doors
I can't handle, I can't handle
