

Does A Fool Ever Learn

Helix

Oh yeah
Hey baby i just got the news
One thing you sure know how to do is lose

You better take some man and take him quick
Cause you got too many wounds to lick

Hey it's such a drag
You could do better as a punching bag

Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn

Hey momma you know it's true
He's always gonna make a fool outta you

And every time he knocks you down to the floor
Why do you get up and go back for more

I guess you like how it feels
To be knocked off your high heels

Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn

You coulda taken a lesson from life
Gone and found somebody new

The kinda guy who really cares
Would be a fool for you, for you

I guess you like how it feels
To be knocked off your high heels

Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn
Does a fool ever learn
