

Here I Go Again

Helix

It's the same old story
All over again
Same old plot line
From beginning to end

Nothin' ever changes
It's really always the same
And when we reach the finale
I'm always to blame

And here I go again
Here I go again
Falling in love and messing it up
Here I go again

Well, take me to a party
Feel so out of place
Always end up leaving
With egg on my face

I musta got up this morning
On the wrong side of bed
Guess I shoulda stayed there
I shoulda quit while ahead

And here I go again
Here I go again
Falling in love and messing it up
Here I go again

I don't know
Why you love me
But I'm glad you do
And you know I'll be there
To give my love to you
My love to you

Here I go again
Falling in love
Here I go again
Messing it up
Here I go again
Falling in love
Here I go again
Messing it up
Here I go again
Falling in love
