

Long Distance Heartbreak

Helix

Never meant to live this way
But somehow you're there
And I'm here
Somehow
I just couldn't stay
We've changed so much
With the passing of the years
Oh no now we only play our games
Tell me am I the one to blame?

Chorus

It's a long distance heartbreak coming down
Long distance heartbreak
It's a long distance heartbreak coming down
Long distance heartbreak
Always leaves me hanging on the phone
Always leaves me feeling so alone
Long distance heartbreak
So alone
Long distance heartbreak
So alone

Never meant to hurt you like I have
But this feeling in me just can't be changed
Somehow somehow
I just had to be free
I was wrong
Now I'm the one to blame
Oh no now I'm still wanting you
Tell me what am I supposed to do?

Chorus

Oh always leaves me feeling so alone
Always leaves me hanging on the phone
Always leaves me feeling so alone
So alone
Long distance heartbreak
Long distance heartbreak
Long distance heartbreak
Long distance heartbreak
Oh! Oh no!
