

The One

Helker

You came to me one day
And your smile decided
How my life would be
From here and ever
Then you started to grow
Side by side with our love
But there's so much deep inside
It's hard to tell you

So, I'm here right now
Trying to find the words

You are the one who can make me smile
You are the one who can make me cry
You are the one who gives me the strenght
To go on and on

Just being there you make me feel alive
I can't conceive a life without you
I'm just trying to do the best
I'm learning from mistakes
My mistakes

So the life goes on
I'm trying to understand
Holding you in my arms
Just like an angel
