

Stranger In You

Hell Is For Heroes

If I could let you in
To greet the vermin inside
I'd find a way through your heart
And raise some hell again
Or maybe just settle down
I'd be the one
Someone you could remember

The trail went sideways
You'll find me out some day
When the ice has burned
Standing here in cold blood

And I would come up for air
If it was not for my pride
I'd be the one
Or maybe not, it's alright

I'll find you out someday
After all the trials
I see the stranger in you.
