

Crash & Burn

Hell or Highwater

life is a long long road i know take it one day at a time but days are wasted
i cant replace em
if im not mistaken
i don't have time for this
the nights are getting longer and longer i swear that i used to be stronger but i wont forget that i cant regret where i've been so until then ill say

crash and burn my friend
ill see you at the bottom of the deep dark blue descend
this is the end
begin again

live for the chase
survive by the thrill
if you want me to take this step
i will
no longer afraid
no longer at bay
longing to face my fears but still a promise is made to change who i am
no looking back
well fight till the end a promise in vain is a promise to break your life is only yours to make

this is the end
begin again
