

Terrorized In The Night

Hell or Highwater

Calling all cars
I'm sounding the alarm there's a mad man knocking at my door i don't know what he wants but his silence seems to haunt me I'm feeling like he's been here before children lay frozen from the fear i stand with a blade there's no turning back from here cuz i was

by a maniac
please come save me
by a man who's deep in a dream he's coming after me

heart is pounding the walls around me will soon come crumbling down a shadow rises from the depths his foot steps shaking the ground now we pray as the reaper rings the bell lock and load tonight we dance in hell

please come save me
