Hell or Highwater

I'll never be the man you wanted
Though I promised you I would
I'm tired of spending my time trying to understand
Being misunderstood

To live a life we always dreamed of
Was getting harder for me to fake
The truth of it all is that we are
Another one of my mistakes

We try and try and try
But we never get it right
I never knew that love was supposed to beat me down
But I don't regret it
I just wanted somebody to love
I thought that you could be the one...

But now I've come to find

That I was wrong about you
From the start
You were wrong about me
And it tore us apart
We were wrong
But all I wanted
Was to be right
Right by you

It almost seemed like we would make it
As trouble bore a hole in me
I keep staring into your hopeful eyes
Hoping that I would see
The man that you wanted
All I saw was a future of fear
No all I know
Is I am done from here

Cuz now I've come to find

That I was wrong about you
From the start
You were wrong about me
And it tore us apart
We were wrong
But all I wanted
Was to be right
Right by you

And I'll remember every word you said
As you point out all the wrongs I did
Our history is shattered
Now there's nothing left inside of me
Gave you all I had
Leave it to me to ruin everything
