

A Minor Point

Hellbastard

Your mindless chants show your brain to be dead
How can you all be so easily led?
You're forced with bullshit, you think it's right
You'll keep your security, you're safe because you're white
You'll not be needed, just pawns in their game
The tables will turn, you'll be treated the same
Middle-aged business men will seize the power
You'll realize too late your dreams have turned sour

These mindless chants Of those bigoted thoughts
