

Seven Rainy Days

hello

Seven rainy days seven lonely nights, seven rock'n'rolls, keeps me, cheaps me, seven rainy days, seven lonely nights, seven rainy days...

I'll have to go now, my mind is plain now, I came to meet you that day, I asked if you knew where I can finally move, you said to me "I'll do, I'll show you the way".

About a mile out, I thought I'll make out had to meet you in the motel, so we checked in, didn't have a clue, got the key to two-twenty-three.

Seven rainy days, seven lonely nights, seven rock'n'rolls, keeps me, cheaps me, seven rainy days, seven lonely nights, just a week away, seven rainy days.

On the highway, no more words to say, but your right is all wrong, in the fading light it got swallowed by the night, I saw your face and her face beside me, beside me in the sky, oh ahy...

Seven rainy days, seven lonely nights, seven rock'n'rolls, keeps me, cheaps me, seven rainy days, seven lonely nights, just a week away, seven rainy days.

Do you want to ride me New York look back do you sit beside me it's a one-way turn!

Seven rainy days, seven lonely nights, seven rock'n'rolls, keeps me, cheaps me, seven rainy days, seven lonely nights, just a week away, seven rainy days.
