

Needy Lover

Hellogoodbye

Yeah

Where are your eyes
You better bring them back to me
'Cause they don't watch you like mine
Baby, please come back to me

If you like the way I live
[?] never be
Just tender love
Baby tender love
When your eyes are on my skin
[?] I feel the shiver
Of tender love
Baby tender love, yeah

So baby, please
I need to feel
Your eyes on my face
Someone taking my place
Am I fading away,
For you?

So where are your eyes
You better bring them back to me
They don't watch you like mine
Baby, please come back to me

If you are Always on your phone
How do you expect to know?
If you are
Falling out of love with me
Do you expect to see

[?] in the snow
'Cause they want your body
Is it not for me?
I've been hearing of your love
Just like anybody does
Even though I see
Boy you speak to me

Ooh, ooh, through the dark
[?] my heart
The only [?] I ever need to hold
To keep from growing cold
Is yours

So where are your eyes
You better bring them back to me
They don't watch you like mine
Baby, please come back to me

It's better
You living here
A little bit of space

'Cause we need [?]
And they're coming close
They're all so close
I can't believe it
I wanna see it all
If it's [?]
[?] until you know
[?] are on you
To make [?] love
You and me
Eternally
Locked in a [?]

So where are your eyes
You're gonna bring them back to me
They don't watch you like mine
Baby, please come back to me

Yeah
