

Down In The Dumps

Helloween

Woke from a dream, fell off the bed
Ashtray smashed to pieces
Robe stuck at door, hot mug in my hand
Coffee spilled 'cross my legs

My head's running high
But can't process the tasks ahead
It wants to comply
But so confused
It's burning up

I'm down in the dumps
Can't take no more
I'm all messed up
A fish in a bowl

Went outside, walked down the stairs
Left the keys inside
My head's running high
But can't process the tasks ahead

I'm down in the dumps
Can't take no more
I'm all messed up
A fish in a bowl

I tried so hard to get 'round this
Will it take forever
Might there be a curse
To cause this sorry fate

I tried so hard to get 'round this
Will it take forever
Might there be a curse
To cause this sorry fate
To cause this sorry fate

I'm down in the dumps
Can't take no more
I'm all messed up
A fish in a bowl

I'm down in the dumps
Can't take no more
I'm down in the dumps
A fish in a bowl
