

No Eternity

Helloween

Takin' my time ain't too easy today
No time to live ain't no time for dying
No time to talk cause I have to move on
No time for love ain't no time for crying
No time to waste not a minute to wait
No time to care because time is money
Time's so expensive we can not afford
Only hellfire waits

Sometimes I don't care at all tonight I'm breaking free
Seems like it is my last facility

Time is losing all it's pride
We live as if we hide
Away from all our joy and glory
Time is losing all it's pride
We live as if there's no eternity

Time's running out it can happen so fast
We're gonna perish in big haste at last
No turning back cause I can't turn the page
Farewell my friend ain't so long

Sometimes I don't care at all tonight I'm breaking free
Seems like it is my last facility

Time is losing all it's pride
We live as if we hide
Away from all our joy and glory
Time is losing all it's pride
We live as if there's no eternity

Time is losing all it's pride
We live as if we hide
Away from all our joy and glory
Time is losing all it's pride
We live as if there's no eternity

No eternity
No eternity
