

Warrior

Helloween

Blackened sky, a final flash
Death is in the air
Warriors without a face
Destruction everywhere

Silent falls the hammer
No one hears the cries
No escaping from this hell
Your prayers won't be heard... so die

Brainless, cruel commanders
Sending death and pain
Soldiers, only robots
Fight for their life in vain

Silent falls the hammer
No one hears the cries
No escaping from this hell
Your prayers won't be heard... so die

Die now, die, warrior!
Die now, die, warrior!

Somewhere in a shelter sit the men
Who hold your fate in hands
Playin' chess and you're the loser
You're a small pawn in their game

Somewhere in a shelter sit the men
And they don't realize
A war without survivors is a fight
That's never won... so die!

Barren land, desolate waste
Destruction is complete
Survivors creepin' through the ruins
Decaying flesh and meat

Somewhere in a shelter
Some pigs are still alive
And still, they play the game
They won't give a damn... so die!

Die now, die, warrior!
Die now, die, warrior!
Die now, die, warrior!
Die now, die, warrior!

Die!
