

Blood Plague

Hellyeah

I'm flying blind in this plague of mine
Without a care in the world, I'm living a better life
Selfishness, my truthful self expression
I want your soul, so I take you to deception
I lie but I look honest
And no good deed will go unpunished
One good turn deserves another
Try to save me I'll pull you under
If you're the lightning I'm the thunder

Your blood's thinner than water
I'll drink you like wine
Transcend to drunken shadows
You will become my prize
My blood boils to fire
Then freezes to ice
I'll build the walls around you
Then rob you of your life

I'm flying blind, in this state of mind
Your body may belong to you
But your spirits becoming mine
Misery is the gift of my affliction
Agonies the reward for my addiction
Your bloods of a dishonest
I'm as good as a dead man's promise
I'm at the ease of my disease
One thing I can guarantee
The truth is my disease

Your blood's thinner than water
I'll drink you like wine
Transcend to drunken shadows
You will become my prize
My blood boils to fire
Then freezes to ice
I'll build the walls around you
Then rob you of your life

Plague
Blood plague
Plague
Blood plague

Your blood's thinner than water
I'll drink you like wine
Transcend to drunken shadows
You will become my prize
My blood boils to fire
Then freezes to ice
I'll build the walls around you
Then rob you of your life

Plague
Blood plague
Plague
Blood plague

Blood plague
Blood plague
