

Perfect

Hellyeah

You're as perfect as an apple, with a worm and a bruise
You're as perfect as a song, out of key out of tune

You're as perfect as a dream that will never come true
You're as perfect as a sky that will never been blue
Just another bottom feeder selling pigs in a poke
So go be perfectly imperfect and just leave me alone!

Live to fight, another day
So I'll meet you at the gallows so I can watch you swing
Live to fight, another day
I can't wait to pull the plug and watch you circle round and round and down the drain

You're as perfect, as a rose, that's all thorns and won't bloom
You're as perfect, as a photo, out of focus, with no view

You're as perfect as a promise that's been broken in two
You're as perfect as a bomb with no light for the fuse
You just are who you are you think I like you, I don't!
So just do us all a favor, take your ball and go home!

Live to fight, another day
So I'll meet you at the gallows so I can watch you swing
Live to fight, another day
I can't wait to pull the plug and watch you circle round the drain
Live to fight, another day
So I'll meet you at the gallows so I can watch you swing
Live to fight, another day
I can't wait to pull the plug and watch you circle round and round and down the drain

Gonna bring the pain, gonna fan the flame
Gonna burn you up and watch you circle down the drain

I live to fight, another day
So I'll meet you at the gallows so I can watch you swing
Live to fight, another day
I can't wait to pull the plug and watch you circle round the drain
Live to fight, another day
So I'll meet you at the gallows so I can watch you swing
Live to fight, another day
I can't wait to pull the plug and watch you circle round and round and down the drain
