Victimized, but you're in bed Stumble out and run dead If it ever paid to self start Environment, make you smart

Just another victim Just another victim Just another victim Just another victim

Kid, I heard it once, but not before
Begging off and livin' bored
My hands are tied, webbed feet again
Fell in behind and claim us dead

Just another victim
Just another victim
Just another victim

Cast this inspite of truth Give it up, I'll lie to you Blame and flame this, turned stat Pointed finger, you fall apart

Just another victim Just another victim Just another victim Just another victim

You played yourself, now you're pointin' fingers How I've robbed and raped ya, bruised and scraped ya But those are just lies 'cause in your eyes You've been victimized it's how you size it up

You disguise it up and try to make it look real To cover up the low self esteem you feel Introspection and after thought Swimmin' in guilt's your favorite sport

But now you're caught up in the undertow You never knew a man could sink so low But now you know 'cause you're John Doe In a black bag a tag on your toe I built the house I felt the pain You're victimized but got no one to blame

You're just another victim, kid
Just another victim
You're just another victim, kid

Holy diver, I'm a surviver
Feeling like Deniro in taxi driver
With Jodi foster and Harvy Keitel
Looks like I'm walkin' through a livin' hell

So spark that owl and I'll get lifted

Feelin' the effects of what my spliff did
'Cause I'm gifted I read sun tzu
I bought a gun too so you'll never come too
The weight of the world ridin' on my shoulders
'Cause I'm a soldier, I thought I told ya

You're just another victim
You're just another victim, kid
You're just another victim
You're just another victim, kid
You're just another victim
You're just another victim, kid
You're just another victim
You're just another victim
You're just another victim, kid

Just another victim
Just another victim
Just another victim
Just another victim kid
