As a child my dreams ran wild Through fields of disobey Wandering, wandering Wanting it all A curious soul astray

As a child my heart ran wild Through fields of disobey Loving and laughing And longing to fall A curious soul astray

I ran with a passionate story
I ran for the wisdom and glory
Away, away I ran
As a child my dreams ran wild

Through fields of disobey Wandering, wandering Wanting it all A curious soul astray

I ran with a passionate story I ran for the wisdom and glory Away, away I ran
As a child my dreams ran wild

Through fields of disobey Wandering, wandering Wanting it all A curious soul astray

As a child my dreams ran wild Through fields of disobey Wandering, wandering, wanting it all A curious soul astray A curious soul astray
