

Venus

Hemina

A shift of frame binds me to another life
To shift the blame - to learn, to love

Venus: My timeless abode
The resting place and cradle for my welcoming
Hatred: For the horrid beast I am
Embodying the questions that need no answering

Breathing in the perfumed mountain dew
Golden sanity in my cocoon

Beyond the glow that blinds my eyes
A fragile child lies
All aboard now it's time to depart
Beneath the blades of scars to be
Far up high, a new life waits to take your place

Venus: The celestial vial
Enclosing me to banality
25 years; still no quickening
On a high, and wasting time away
A simple fix; my only...
This habit of mine completely sickening!

I wanna know, what's the point of it all
When it's all up here?
It's slaked by ecstasy
Lies! Oh lies...
It seems that way to you, when it's all up here.
We live a different reality

Now we're at the point of no turning back, it's real
Oh, but why is there no clear message or no sign?

Feel the glow, cos it's here to stay on my yellow sunshine
