

Alive

Hendersin

Yo, I got it all to lose but I ain't quittin' nothin'
'Cause life been gettin' complex, that's word to Joe Budden
You say you got my back but you mothafuckas frontin'
And the blind leadin' the blind, so it's time to show 'em somethin'
And I could never stop here
You gon' need more than Google Maps just to figure out how I really got here
I told 'em life was not fair, you didn't see my vision?
Now all eyes on me, you would think that Pac here, ugh!
Yeah, and I got greatness in my veins now
It's like I window, I been speakin' from the pain
So fuck all these rappers that been sneakin' in the game
I'm talkin' Yachty, talkin' Uzi, man, that shit don't feel the same
So I'm here to bring back real rap, mix it with a little pop
Here to remind 'em Nickelback, little pot
Team Henny, just know that I got you
And if they try to stop you, it's probably 'cause they not you, yeah

I know I've gotta keep—I know I've gotta keep my pain
So realize you're gone the second I reveal my haze
I hold your hand, you know I will, baby, we'll bend the sky
We'll dance along the starry sky [?]
We're goin' to ride around this world, I'm not living
We're goin' to ride around this world, and I'm just feelin'
We're goin' to ride around this world, I'm not living
We're goin' to ride around this world, and I'm just feelin'

Said that I'ma reach the masses, fuck bein' local
Funny I'm a rapper 'cause I was never vocal
If you need a verse, I can hit you with a quote, so
Henny in Ya System, just hit me on your social
Pick one, any one, it don't really matter
I'm lookin' at this glass ceilin', 'bout to make it shatter
The flows are so cold I'ma make your teeth chatter
I been runnin' it for years, you can hear the pitter-patter
And that shit is gettin' louder and my family's gettin' prouder
And I know that karma is a bitch, so I don't ever doubt her
And you people try to reach me, but I am on the outer
They say killers move in silence, and I've never been a shouter
Bitch, I'm killin' it (killin' it)
Shout out to my fans that are feelin' it (feelin' it)
I am legend, I am legend, I am willin' it (willin' it)
Try to go and take my spot, you ain't stealin' it (stealin' it)
Yeah, I'm stealin' it (stealin' it), yeah

I know I've gotta keep—I know I've gotta keep my pain
So realize you're gone the second I reveal my haze
I hold your hand, you know I will, baby, we'll bend the sky
We'll dance along the starry sky [?]
We're goin' to ride around this world, I'm not living
We're goin' to ride around this world, and I'm just feelin'
We're goin' to ride around this world, I'm not living
We're goin' to ride around this world, and I'm just feelin'

Yeah, the realest one around (-round)
You swim or you drown (drown)
I never play golf 'cause I never play around
And you ride or you drive (drive)

You break or you thrive (thrive)
I'm the realest one around (-round)
You swim or you drown (drown)
I never play golf 'cause I never play around
And you ride or you drive (drive)
You break or you thrive (thrive)
We all want somethin' to make us feel alive, yeah (yeah, yeah)
We all want somethin' to make us feel alive
We all want somethin' to make us feel alive
