

Falling

Hendersin

The more you laugh, the more you grow
That's what I've been told, that's what I've been shown
So let's hold hands and let's go dance into the light
And just be quiet as the music plays tonight, oh

Lately, I wish you were my baby
I know it might sound crazy, but we cannot live in fear
Livin', take chances that are givin'
It feels just like a prison when you are not here
And I don't wanna live like Piper and Alex, no
Nothin' else matters, baby, that metallic flow
And I know that there is only one of us-and you
Already the one I trust with all my secrets
Promise you gon' keep it
Truth is the proof, and I think that we should speak it, yeah
So let's aim high and not expect to land
Tonight, I'm gonna fall
Catch me if you can

The more you laugh, the more you grow
That's what I've been told, that's what I've been shown
So let's hold hands and let's go dance into the light
And just be quiet as the music plays tonight, oh

Walk towards love (love) until we cross the line (line)
I promise you, we'll be fine
I see us fallin', I see us fallin' tonight
Love right here, don't need to chase it (chase it)
The night is young, we shouldn't waste it, nah
I see us fallin', I see us fallin' tonight

Hug me; just say how much you'll love me
Find beauty when it's ugly; life isn't always good
But we'll get lost in somethin' you don't find often
Where we don't need the talkin', this love is understood
Tell me where your heart is; I think it's time to start headin' home (home)
I understand your body language, no Rosetta Stone (stone)
United, we stand; we just need U.S. (yeah)
When I'm at my worst, what'd you do best?
Would you lift me up? (up)
And then you hold it down (down)
I was feelin' lost (lost), but now I'm feelin' found (found)
And jumpin' off the edge, well, that's all it took
It's written in the stars; we the author of the book

The more you laugh, the more you grow (yeah)
That's what I've been told, that's what I've been shown (yeah)
So let's hold hands and let's go dance into the light
And just be quiet as the music plays tonight, oh

I see us-I see us
I see us fallin', I see us fallin' tonight
I can see us fallin' in love
You make me say, "ooh"
I see us-I see us
I see us fallin', I see us fallin' tonight
I see us
