

Farsighted

Hendersin

There's a urge I can't ignore, hah, yeah
When I feel good I need to feel some more, hah, yeah
Million dollars buys a lot of stuff, yeah
But I'll probably say it's not enough, nah

I need to see what's' in front of me
Appreciate what I have and not what it could be
When it comes to life there's no guarantee
Can someone tell me why, why I can't see
What's in front of me

When's it all gonna come to me
What it is not gonna be
When's the day I'm gonna see
In front of me, in front of me
When's it all gonna come to me
What it is not gonna be
When's the day I'm gonna see
In front of me, in front of me

Some get high to face the lows, hm, well
Me I'd rather buy some brand new clothes, hm, yeah
Everything that glitters isn't gold, well
Is this what I want or what I'm told? Told

I need to see what's' in front of me
Appreciate what I have and not what it could be
When it comes to life there's no guarantee
Can someone tell me why, why I can't see
What's in front of me

When's it all gonna come to me
What it is not gonna be
When's the day I'm gonna see
In front of me, in front of me
When's it all gonna come to me
What it is not gonna be
When's the day I'm gonna see
In front of me, in front of me
