Hendersin

I was up
I was up
I been down
I been down
I was lost
I was lost
I've been found
I've been found

I was right
I was right
Made a mistake
Made a mistake
Foot on the gas
Foot on the gas
I took a break

I'm human. I'm not perfect
Human, but love. I deserve it
Human, and life's still worth it
Human
I'm human

Why do I hide mistakes?
Why do I hide my pain?
Why don't I give me grace?
Why do I feel ashamed?

Why don't I call my friends
When I feel the strain?
And I bet you that
They probably feel the same

I bet that they missing me
But I can't lack consistency
So I just put the distant me right in front instantly

Sometimes feel like the infant me
I thought I was a different me
Bit words they said. They play inside my head
Just like a symphony

I was up
I was up
I been down
I been down
I was lost
I was lost
I've been found
I've been found

I was right
I was right
Made a mistake
Made a mistake
Foot on the gas
Foot on the gas

I'm human. I'm not perfect
Human, but love. I deserve it
Human, and life's still worth it
I'm human

I wish I was empathetic
I wish I was tough enough
Honestly. To sum it up
I wish I was enough, enough
That's why I'm working late night
Fall asleep in the keyboard
I think it's gon' make me happy
Success as a reward
Thinking, "What you mad for?
Oh. You wish you had more?
Really? You got everything
You just want a tad more?
You just want a little bit?
Really. You're a hypocrite
But that's just part of life
Make sure you keep living it."

Human. Day or night
You're human. Wrong or right
You're human. Make sure you fight
You're human
You're human
