

I Know

Hendersin

Last night I cried though, cried though
But I guess a nigga tried so, tried so
Drink fast but they lie slow, lie slow
Forgot what I know
Yeah, yeah
Stayin' up late nights, late nights
Findin' peace but I make fights, make fights
Keep it moving, no break lights, break lights
Couple wrongs I'ma make right
Yeah, yeah
The love you give me
The shit is unlikely
Even those days that I don't like me
Even those ways that I try to fight me
I don't understand what you quite see

But you still there even when I fell
Life's little secret, I won't tell
On the past, you don't dwell
You're my heaven
When I'm going through hell
Yeah

I know
No matter where I go
If I'm feelin' hollow
I know you gon' be there
And
I'll be okay
Lose, win
No matter where I been
If I'm good
Or I sin
I know you'll let me in
And I'll be okay

I don't need a plan B, plan B
I just hope they understand me, stand me
Tryna be the best I can be, can be
I do it for my family
Yeah, yeah
You will never break me, break me
My mistakes that will make me, make me
Life's colder than an AC, AC
No telling where it takes me
Yeah, yeah
And the love that you giving is life long
Dark days but I know you'll leave the light on Action's louder than words
And it is absurd
Cause I can't hear you now
Like you went and put a mic on, damn

But you still there even when I fell
On the past, you don't dwell

When I'm going through hell
Yeah

I know
No matter where I go
And
I'll be okay
Lose, win
If I'm good
Or I sin
I know you'll let me in
And I'll be okay

I know
No matter where I go
I know you gon' be there
And
I'll be okay
Lose, win
If I'm good
Or I sin
And I'll be okay
