

Know Now

Hendersin

You say that I'm crazy, I say that you lazy
So hang up this phone
I'll go out the world the same way I came in, yeah that's all on my own
I know that you're mad, well too bad
I don't care, you can tell by my tone
Fuck was I thinking? Been drinking, don't really know how I'll get home, damn
What am I doing? I think that I'm brewing this all 'fore it starts
Acting so stupid cause Cupid had to go 'head and throw darts
Destiny brought us together but Tyronne can tear us apart
Not trying to diss you, might miss you
No issue with me breaking hearts

So I'm yelling right through the phone
"I'll do all this all on my own
I don't need nobody else
I'm gon' get this by myself"
Then she said "Well once you get it, baby, and you have it all
If you fall, let me ask you something, who you gonna
Who you gonna call?
You don't even know now! You don't even know now!
You don't even know now! You don't even know now!"

I don't want to walk with you, talk with you
Cause there's not too much to say
Every time you make a mistake I am the one who has to pay
We fight every night but alright I'll just act like everything's okay
Say that I'm done and I'll run but for some reason I'll probably stay
I give you my all 'til I fall but for some reason you only will take
I only want to keep it moving but for some reason you just break
And I don't understand the choices that you keep on choosing to make
I'd rather feel happy and real than to succeed happy and fake

So I'm yelling right through the phone
"I'll do all this all on my own
I don't need nobody else
I'm gon' get this by myself"
Then she said "Well once you get it baby and you have it all
If you fall, let me ask you something, who you gonna
Who you gonna call?
You don't even know now! You don't even know now!"

You don't even know now! You don't even know now! "
