

Rain

Hendersin

Not here to complain
Thoughts are running through my brain
I'm still here to give it everything I got
I'm letting go of all the stress
Because Kanye said it best
Everything I am is everything I'm not
Why don't we hop in the car
And let's take it really far
Find a place that we have never ever been
Seems like music at a glance
But I'm trying to make a chance
For the people who don't ever get to win

Oh you tell me to step back, step back
Then you tell me to come close, come close
But I tell you that I won't, I won't no
And you tell me I'm messed up, messed up
But I really can't fess up, fess up
To the charges that you made
Don't mean to rain on your parade
But I do
I don't mean to rain on your parade
But I do, I do

I'm still working day and night
I'm just trying to make it right
Because lately they just seem to have me wrong
And I don't wanna hit the brakes
Or fall victim to mistakes
So I gotta do my best with every song
Ayo shout out to my fans
And what up to all my Stan's
You're the only reason that I'm still here
More than money or the wealth
It's 'bout family and good health
With those on my side there's nothing that I fear

Oh you tell me to step back, step back
Then you tell me to come close, come close
But I tell you that I won't, I won't no
And you tell me I'm messed up, messed up
But I really can't fess up, fess up
To the charges that you made
Don't mean to rain on your parade
But I do
I don't mean to rain on your parade
But I do, I do

Knew I had powers like Kenny's
When I was rapping for pennies
And let me paint a picture for you
I was snapping at Denny's
And now they acting no Emmy
Shoutout the team cause its Henny's
I've been on Billboard before
Just know that's one of many's
So just do what you love

So you can love what you do
When it comes to people that I trust
There's only a few
And if you asking me who?
And you still need a clue
Then you can be pretty certain I'm not talking 'bout you

Relentless temper, temper
I'm excepted to take it, take it
But I know that I can't, I can't no
Won't every change for you, you
Make me feel like nothing, nothing
I know that life's a compromise
But I won't make one here tonight
No I won't
But I won't make one here tonight
No I won't, I won't

Don't you try, don't you try
Don't you try, you know that I'll be fine
Don't you try, don't you try
Don't you try, you know that I'll be fine
Don't you try, don't you try
Don't you try, you know that I'll be fine
Don't you try to take me back this time
And this is a toast to my release
From all of the contracts and late fees
Wasn't gonna mention poor reception
Go ahead and take this to collection

Oh you tell me to step back, step back
You tell me to come close, come close
But I tell you that I won't, I won't no
And you tell me I'm messed up, messed up
But I really can't fess up, fess up
To the charges that you made
Don't mean to rain on your parade
But I do
I don't mean to rain on your parade
But I do, I do
