Hendersin

Aw, yeah
Yuh-yuh
Aw, yeah
Yuh
Aw, yeah
Yo, yo

I know it seems far, but you're closer than you think
Complaining what's remaining can be draining like a sink
'Cause life moves fast, you can miss it in a blink
Half-empty, half-full, I ain't talking 'bout a drink
What I'm really tryna say is change your perspective
Universe gives signs, gotta be detective
When it comes to your dream, you gotta be protective
'Cause they gon' try to say that you're broken and defective
Fuck 'em

So here's your sign, sign, sign
Just keep going on
You will be fine, fine, fine
Those who matter, they
Don't ever mind, mind, mind
We all need the night
So we can shine, shine, shine

They thought that Edison was psycho
And Franklin was crazy
And even some points somebody doubted Jay-Z
And even in school they thought that I was lazy
Now the same teachers' kids are the ones who pay me
For all the songs that I really created
I won't stop until it can't be debated
I'm one of the best to do it
Follow intuition, don't be persuaded
And when they wish you a happy belated
It's fuck 'em

So here's your sign, sign, sign
Just keep going on
You will be fine, fine, fine
Those who matter, they
Don't ever mind, mind, mind
We all need the night
So we can shine, shine, shine

Shine (Shine)
Shine (Shine)
Shine (Shine)
Let me see you
Shine (Shine)
Shine (Shine)
Shine (Yeah)
Let me see you
Shine (Team Henny)
Shine (I just want to see you shine)
Shine
Let me see you (I need you to say it with me)

Shine (Let's go)
Let me see you

Don't you listen, they just hatin'
They sit around all day just waitin'
They don't understand they mistaken
They can't see a legend in the makin'
Don't you listen, they just hatin'
They sit around all day just waitin'
They don't understand they mistaken
They can't see a legend in the makin'
