Hendersin

Don't look right? I change the angle
They want heat? I like to flame-throw
Win and lose. That's how the game go
Life's a dance. I'm trying to tango

Yeah. We go right, left, right

Betting on myself like Pete when he rose
Songs in the hundreds like the street-kind-of clothes
Went my own path. Kinda like the streets kind of closed
And the world will follow after. He counting crows

I ain't lose a step. You can double-check the fitbit
Flow tailor-made. Why you're sounding like a misfit?
Had to pan the vocals foir the cake. That's a bisquick
Got that je ne sais quoi, but what is it?

Is is "I rose from the ashes"? Their wave always crashes
Coming right for your neck like whiplashes
That's this chip on my shoulders like sashes
Promise like doors when it dashes
Yeah

I'm showing up. You try to stunt? I'm growing up
A date with destiny. I'm 'a save that dance
Like the big day, I'm 'a take that chance

Don't look right? I change the angle
They want heat? I like to flame-throw
Win and lose. That's how the game go

Flow-spotter. No-quitter
Certified go-getter. I know better
So clever 'cause it all seems seamless
Wrinkle in the plans. I'm right where the steam is Got a couple irons in the fire crazy
What comes around, it goes around. That's a tire, baby

Had to work on myself. Had to hire lately
'Til we're up and we're higher greatly
And your lack of conviction
Is causing some friction
You just stick to the script like prescription
Raising the bar? No raising suspicion
'Cause asking permission
Is last on the mission
Type of mission that make Tom Wan Cruise
First they slept on me. Hit snooze

Now, I got it booming like bass
So, answer with a straight face
You think we're gon' lose?

I go high, low. Watch me as I do my dance
Big way. Big day. Watch me as I take a chance
Stand tall or fall. Watch me as I make my stance
I go high, low. Watch me as I do my dance
