

This That

Hendersin

Reaching for the stars like Tyson
I was always driven, no license
Gotta play, baby, 'cause I might win
Even though they say I won't
Even though they say I won't
I don't understand why y'all hate
Had to make it happen this ain't all fate
It's my time, so they all late
Better check your watch, nigga
Nigga gon' watch, nigga
Wish life was easy as my A-B-C's
I keep it movin', yeah that's A-D-D
I got this shit on lock like A-D-T
Me and my people goin' ape, a couple A-P-E's
So whatchu know about it?
You throwin' silver stones, but you're clueless
And I don't really give a fuck what the rule is Mine tell, Jordan show you how we do this
You try to call me out, but it's new phone—who 'dis?
Ha

We will never run away
We will never run away
Ay, yeah, yeah
Nothin' left to prove
Live like nothin's left to lose
Live like nothin's left to lose
Nah
This that old, this that new, like it's 1992
Bump that Snoop, bump that Dre
Let me ride, just let it play
This that good, this that bad
This that everything we had
This is you, this is me
This is everything we'll be, aw yeah

Big boy feelin' like a outcast
Point of no return, well I'm out past
They can take their shot baby, you can take your shot
'Cause I'm good at 21, so I outlast
Anybody that been tryna play me
Paid my dues, now they pay me
They said that I was crazy
Everything I do, it for my baby
Wish life was easy as my 1-2-3's
It's my turn, yeah the one U-P
I had a vision, so I'm tryna be the one you see
You thinkin' that they remain the way they come to me
So whatchu know about it?
You throwin' silver stones, you still clueless
And I still don't give a fuck what the rule is
Mine tell, Jordan show you how we do this
Try to call me out, but it's new phone—who 'dis?

We will never run away
We will never run away
Live like nothin's left to lose
Live like nothin's left to lose
Nah
This that old, this that new, like it's 1992
Bump that Snoop, bump that Dre
Let me ride, just let it play
This that good, this that bad
