

Too Far

Hendersin

Don't go too far
Don't go so fast
Don't go too far
No. Don't go too far away from me

I think it scares me a bit
At least a little bit more than I care to admit
I was living like a given, like a chair when you sit
Enjoy the fruits of my labor. What's a pear when you get it?

And you're all alone
People want a house, but what's a house to a home?
These wins ain't free. You gotta go out on your own
But I just really hope that when you roam
That you

Don't go too far
Don't go so fast
Don't go too far
No. Don't go too far away from me

Don't go too far
Don't go so fast
Don't go too far
No. Don't go too far away from me

When your back against the wall, be more than a poster
Have some ups and downs in life. OK. Roller-coaster
Put it all out on the table 'til they need a coaster
And never play the backseat. Nah. Be the chauffeur

You both got a purpose. Go ahead and serve it
Happiness is beautiful and—yes—you deserve it
Just make sure your intuition is your guide
No matter what, I'm right there by your side
So, just

Don't go too far
Don't go so fast
Don't go too far
No. Don't go too far away from me

Don't go too far
Don't go so fast
Don't go too far
No. Don't go too far away from me
