

I don't wanna die-ie-ie
Asking myself why-y-y
Why I didn't try-y-y
Let it pass me by-y-y
I'm not waiting for tomorrow, I gotta get it today
I need to speak the words that I been meaning to say
'Cause it really makes me cry-y-y
When I wonder why-y-y I didn't try

I can't watch the sidelines, no, I need to play
I can't just sit there and talk 'bout it, I ain't [?]
I don't know where I'm headed, promise I'ma lead the way
And money over happiness that doesn't even pay
That nine to five that I was working dead-end cul de sac
Applying the pressure but I promise I ain't holding back
I'm gonna change the world, remember when I told 'em that?
I don't know it all but trust me I know the fact

I don't wanna die-ie-ie
Asking myself why-y-y
Why I didn't try-y-y
Let it pass me by-y-y
I'm not waiting for tomorrow, I gotta get it today
I need to speak the words that I been meaning to say
'Cause it really makes me cry-y-y
When I wonder why-y-y I didn't try

Too many people's dreams end up DOA
If you ain't talking any means well then me no say
You gotta do it if you please, that's that s'il vous plaît
And yeah you know I spit it raw, got that crew to take, yeah yeah yeah
Don't wait for the right moment 'cause that moment won't come
On the pursuit of happiness, you almost hear how I hum
I hope you've taken these chances, I hope you take my advice
And don't stop until you've won 'cause we can't do it twice

I don't wanna die-ie-ie
Asking myself why-y-y
Why I didn't try-y-y
Let it pass me by-y-y
I'm not waiting for tomorrow, I gotta get it today
I need to speak the words that I been meaning to say
'Cause it really makes me cry-y-y
When I wonder why-y-y I didn't try

I don't wanna wake up in fifty years
Heart with pain and my pillow soaked in tears
Like no, why didn't I go?
I need to start living my truth and stop denying Need to start living my truth and stop lying
For me giving up way harder than trying
For me giving up way harder than trying

I don't wanna die-ie-ie
Asking myself why-y-y
Why I didn't try-y-y
Let it pass me by-y-y

I'm not waiting for tomorrow, I gotta get it today
I need to speak the words that I been meaning to say
'Cause it really makes me cry-y-y
When I wonder why-y-y I didn't try
