Tell me that you love me
Tell me that you'll never leave
Tell me that you need me
Need me like the air you breathe
I'ma let you lead me
Happy misses guarantee
I wish it was that simple, wish it was that easy
But this just ain't a movie, and this just isn't TV
Oh, no

Everyday with you is a great day
Well, that's the type of stuff that I can't say
When I'm with you, you're my oasis
You deserve to hear that really on a daily basis, but I apologize 'cause I am not that guy
I'm the "type to break the heart and then give it back" guy
I'm the type of person thinking that he don't deserve love
I live in a state of mind you prolly never heard of
Maybe we could go take a trip to Cali
I wish it could be like "When Harry Met Sally"
You could have what she's having, cuter laughter
And we could live happy, happily ever after, but
This is not a movie, no, this is not scripted
And there is no foreshadowin', you could not predict it
Guy chases girl, and girl makes guy better
Then they stay madly in love forever

Tell me that you love me
Tell me that you'll never leave
Tell me that you need me
Need me like the air you breathe
I'ma let you lead me
Happy misses guarantee
I wish it was that simple, wish it was that easy
But this just ain't a movie, and this just isn't TV
Oh, no

Everyday with you is a good day
Well, that's the type of stuff that I should say
When I'm with you, life is like a paradise
We so lucky, baby, we should prolly get a pair of dice
Well, I apologize 'cause I am not that man
I'm the "type to break your heart and never give it back" man
I'm the type of person thinking that he doesn't need love
And piece of mind, that is something I'm in need of Well, sometimes life can feel like Jenga
I wish it could be like when Cory met Topanga
We could party 'til dawn, we're Angela, and we're Shawn
And we never have to worry 'bout us moving on, but
This is not a TV show, this is not Disney
And life, it gets hectic, and things, they get busy
No guy chases girl, girl makes guy better
Then they stay madly in love forever
She said tell me that you love me

Tell me that you love me
Tell me that you'll never leave

Tell me that you need me
Need me like the air you breathe
I'ma let you lead me
Happy misses guarantee
I wish it was that simple, wish it was that easy
But this just ain't a movie, and this just isn't TV
