

Closer

Henry Green

Leave your skin on morning glow
Feel the warmth, don't let it run
Away from here

We fall in and out of highs and lows
Lift your feet, don't let the floor
Clip your heels

We should not fear the unknown
'Cause this fear interferes with our growth
I just want to move
Closer to the few we lose
When we're too tied up to do
The lovin' that we used to do

Keep the thoughts you had sometime ago
But there's no need to hold them close
When fire comes near
And we shouldn't clear our throats
Of our speech just to keep dead dreams afloat
I just want to move
Closer to the few we lose
When we're too tied up to do
The lovin' that we used to do

I just want to move
Closer to the few we lose
When we're too tied up to do
The lovin' that we used to do
