

Sunlight

Henry Green

I drew a line through the feeling
I put myself in salt
Rather still in the sea than let myself dissolve
I want to see double meaning, not words afloat
Something give them freedom to overflow

Hold me in the sunlight
Fall deep to the blue lines
Show me what it feels like
Slowly with the sun in my eyes
Folded in the pale white
I'm only half a step from the light
Show me what it feels like
Show me with the sun in my

Eyes open soon
Loose in the places
I'd never known
Overgrown
Oh, water flow
Wild with it's paces
Calm with it's tone
Overgrown

Hold me in the sunlight
Fall deep to the blue lines
Show me what it feels like
Slowly with the sun in my eyes
Folded in the pale white
I'm only half a step from the light
Show me what it feels like
Show me with the sun in my
Eyes
