Henry Moodie

I never sent the drunk text, my biggest mistake
'Cause I heard that you fell in love so I guess I'm a little too late
And I'm still here in London, at my parents' place
And I can't stop writing these songs, wishing you weren't the one that got a way

You're a melody, always stuck in my head
Like a memory that I'll never forget, oh
And I'll always remember it goes

I'd spend forever so lost in your eyes
Float through the indigo for all of time
That shade of blue should be some kind of crime
Oh, it's all you, it's all you
You got a power that's larger than life
Bright as the stars and as big as the sky
That shade of blue should be some kind of crime
Oh, it's all you, it's all you

Was walking in Camden, thought I saw your face
It's been months you moved but I swear I see you at least once a day, oh, no

You're the alcohol that I pour in my Coke
You're the radio, you're the song I turn on
And I'll always remember it goes

I'd spend forever so lost in your eyes
Float through the indigo for all of time
That shade of blue should be some kind of crime
Oh, it's all you, it's all you
You got a power that's larger than life
Bright as the stars and as big as the sky
That shade of blue should be some kind of crime
Oh, it's all you, it's all you

It's you
It's you
It's you
Oh, it's all you, oh, it's all you
Oh, it's you

You're the best thing that's ruined my life
My favourite heartbreak, the lowest of highs
And I feel the same, everything's changed
'Cause now you're with her, I know that you'll say

I'd spend forever so lost in your eyes
Float through the indigo for all of time
That shade of blue should be some kind of crime
Oh, it's all you, it's all you
Oh, it's you
