

Dial My Number

Herman's Hermits

Dial my number
Anytime You're feeling sad and blue
Dial my number
And I'll count the seconds and the minutes, and the hours
And the days, that I waited when I wanted You

Dial my number
Anytime You feel like You're gonna die
Dial my number
And I'll count the seconds and the minutes, and the hours
And the days, that I waited till You said goodbye

Ain't it sad
You're all alone
Just waiting by the telephone
Ain't it blue, what You're gonna do
Someone's done the same to you, so

Dial my number
Anytime You're feeling all alone
Dial my number
And I'll count the seconds and the minutes, and the hours
Till the day, that You told me, that You're coming home

Ain't it sad
You're all alone
Just waiting by the telephone
Ain't it blue, what You're gonna do
Someone's done the same to you, so

Dial my number
Anytime You're feeling all alone
Dial my number
And I'll count the seconds and the minutes, and the hours
Till the day, that You told me, that You're coming home
Dial My number
