

Judge me and my lifestyle
Like it's not even my life now

Who you telling?
Don't tell nobody
Who you telling?

I might be off one to two, don't tell nobody
I just swerved off with your boo, don't tell nobody
She got a friend I need her to, don't tell nobody
Who you telling? I might beat it to, don't tell nobody, oh

Who you telling?
Don't tell nobody
Who you telling?

Don't judge me and my lifestyle
Like it's not even my life now
And they judge me and my choices
Like it never was my choice
I'm like I'm sick of it, but I'm alright
I don't need all of that, but I got needs alright
I might need that bag, I might need that bag
Chick and all that jazz
I drank way too much, way more than I have
I drank way too much, way more than I have, yeah

I might be off one to two, don't tell nobody (nobody)
I just swerved off with your boo, don't tell nobody (what the hell?)
She got a friend I need her to, don't tell nobody
Who you telling? (I might beat it to, don't tell nobody)

Judge me and my lifestyle
Like it's not even my life now

I might be off one to two, don't tell nobody
I just swerved off with your boo, don't tell nobody
She got a friend I need her to, don't tell nobody
Who you telling? I might beat it to, don't tell nobody, oh

Don't tell nobody
I might be off one to two, don't tell nobody
