

Breathing Easy

Her's

Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe
Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe
Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe
Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe

Waking softly
As these clouds disperse in my head
Slept through the night, oh so right
I won't ask for more
Cracked the window
Watched my smoke of troubles escape
Clearing my mind, found my sight
Rose up from the floor

'Cause I'm breathing easier than I was before
Call off the search for my Mother's words
'Cause I'm breathing easier than I was before
Exhaled the air filled with love's despair

(Breathing easier)
(Breathing easier)

Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe
Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe

Breathing shallow
'Cause there's nothing much to move for
Avoiding the light, paralyzed
And love's run out the door
Feeling hollow
When your heart is left in the lurch
Until you decide
It's all in your stride
And be yourself once more

'Cause I'm breathing easier than I was before
Call off the search for my Mother's words
'Cause I'm breathing easier than I was before
Exhaled the air filled with love's despair

(Breathing easier)
(Breathing easier)

Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe
Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe
Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe
Don't crack, sit back
Love, grieve, live, breathe
