

Speed Racer

Her's

Let me love you tonight

'Cause I'm a real speed racer so I gotta get to know you alright

Gimme gimme gimme gimme gimme gimme lovin' tonight

Well she's a real cool sister but I'm thinking she's a little uptight

She's aware that I gave her the look

I'm surprised at the time that it took

Well that's fine as I'm just comin' up after all

She knows...

Baby let me tell you what I think is gonna happen tonight

I'm gonna be a keen chaser never letting you get out of my sight

Name another reason why I shouldn't be your lover tonight

Well you can tame the speed racer but he's putting up a hell of a fight

She's aware that I'm making the move

I feel bad for the guys in the room

They think I've got my hopes up too soon

But I don't

She's mine...

Only need your love for one night

Repeating for the rest of my life

One night, repeated for the rest of my life

One night, repeated for the rest of my life

One night

Okay, woo!
